

Application for the Bracey Family Commitment to Service Scholarship

The Bracey Family Commitment to Service Scholarship is in honor of Glenn Bracey. Glenn was a 1974 graduate of Fauquier High School who, after serving in military intelligence overseas, launched a career in policing, serving first with the Warrenton Police Department then with the Fauquier County Sheriff's Department. Those years shaped his love and admiration for our region's first responders. This scholarship is designed for residents of Fauquier County who are working as Interns or Cadets with the Fauquier County Sheriff's Department and/or the Warrenton Police Department and pursuing a career in Criminal Justice. First priority is given to the candidate who demonstrates financial need, a commitment to service through their involvement with the Sheriff's Department, Warrenton Police Department or in criminal justice class in high school or prior military service. Applicants should have community service experience and/or work experience, possess an academic record that displays initiative, and show a commitment to their chosen field of study.
